- I. Water Superintendent
 - Property owner, Jerold Miller, recently had water running into the front yard and basement of his rental property. Jerold has been in contact with Ben Eldridge about how to resolve the issue and whom is responsible.
- II. Waste Water Superintendent
 - Resident, Courtney Fisher, recently had sewer issues with her main. Bill's Heating and Plumbing was called out to fix the problem. Through their discovery, the main had been refurbished with unknown materials that are not of code. Bill's Heating and Plumbing took pictures of the incident and gave them to Ben Eldridge to approve of paying $1,600.00 for the broken main. Courtney Fisher is expected to pay the remaining total.
- III. Community Development
 - No Community Development Related Items.
- IV. Maintenance Director
 - All is going well with the Street Department. Matt will be placing an order with the State for next years salt bundle.
- V. Marshal
 - No Marshal Related Items.
- VI. Park
 - No Park Related Items.
- VII. Clerk/Treasurer
 - On Ben's behalf, MacKenzie announced the ordinance to vacate the alley off of Washington St. into the parking lot of the Town Hall. The Ordinance will be signed at the next meeting, February 26th, 2020.
 - Two weeks ago, resident Petra Beiring passed away while being at The Maples for two months. A $21.51 water bill was approved and given credit towards her account.
- VIII Old Business
